11                  (3)     Filing and Service by Parties, Generally

12                 All attorneys admitted to practice before this Court are required to file documents 13 electronically via the Court's CM/ECF system. Counsel are directed to the Court's website, 14 www.wawd.uscourts.gov, for a detailed description of the requirements for filing via CM/ECF.
15 All non-attorneys, such as pro se parties and/or prisoners, may continue to file a paper original 16 with the Clerk. All filings, whether filed electronically or in traditional paper format, must 17 indicate in the upper right hand corner the name of the magistrate judge to whom the document 18 is directed.

19                 For any party filing electronically, when the total of all pages of a filing exceeds fifty 20 (50) pages in length, a paper copy of the document (with tabs or other organizing aids as 21 necessary) shall be delivered to the Clerk's Office for chambers. The chambers copy must be 22 clearly marked with the words "Courtesy Copy of Electronic Filing for Chambers."

1 Any document filed with the Court must be accompanied by proof that it has been served 2 upon all parties that have entered a notice of appearance in the underlying matter.

3 (4) Motions, Generally

4 Any request for court action shall be set forth in a motion, properly filed and served.
5 Pursuant to LCR 7(b), any argument being offered in support of a motion shall be submitted as a 6 part of the motion itself and not in a separate document. The motion shall include in its caption 7 (immediately below the title of the motion) a designation of the date the motion is to be noted for 8 consideration upon the Court's motion calendar.

9 Stipulated and agreed motions, motions to file over-length motions or briefs, motions for 10 reconsideration, joint submissions pursuant to the option procedure established in LCR 37(a)(2), 11 motions for default, requests for the clerk to enter default judgment, and motions for the court to 12 enter default judgment where the opposing party has not appeared shall be noted for 13 consideration on the day they are filed. See LCR 7(d)(1). All other non-dispositive motions

1       The party making the motion may file and serve, not later than 11:59 p.m. (if filing
2 electronically) or 4:30 p.m. (if filing a paper original with the Clerk's office) on the date 3 designated for consideration of the motion, a reply to the opposing party's briefs and affidavits.

4             (5)     For Summary Judgment

5       Parties filing for summary judgment pursuant to Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of Civil 6 Procedure should acquaint themselves with those rules. As noted above, these motions shall be 7 noted for consideration no earlier than the fourth Friday following filing and service of the 8 motion.

9       Defendants filing motions to dismiss or motions for summary judge are advised that they 10 MUST serve Rand notices concurrently with motions to dismiss and motions for summary 11 judgment so that pro se prisoner plaintiffs will have fair, timely and adequate notice of what is 12 required of them in order to oppose those motions. Woods v. Carey, 684 F.3d 934, 941 (9th Cir.
13 2012). The Ninth Circuit has set forth model language for such notices:

14       A motion for summary judgment under Rule 56 of the Federal Rules of 15 Civil Procedure will, if granted, end your case.

16       Rule 56 tells you what you must do in order to oppose a motion for 17 summary judgment. Generally, summary judgment must be granted when 18 there is no genuine issue of material fact – that is, if there is no real 19 dispute about any fact that would affect the result of your case, the party 20 who asked for summary judgment is entitled to judgment as a matter of 21 law, which will end your case. When a party you are suing makes a 22 motion for summary judgment that is properly supported by declarations 23 (or other sworn testimony), you cannot simply rely on what your complaint says. Instead, you must set out specific facts in declarations, depositions, answers to interrogatories, or authenticated documents, as provided in Rule 56(e), that contradict the facts shown in the defendant's declarations and documents and show that there is a genuine issue of material fact for trial. If you do not submit your own evidence in opposition, summary judgment, if appropriate, may be entered against you. If summary judgment is granted, your case will be dismissed and there will be no trial.

2 Rand v. Rowland, 154 F.3d 952, 963 (9th Cir. 1998) (emphasis added).

3 Defendants who fail to file and serve the required Rand notices on plaintiff may have 4 their motion stricken from the Court's calendar with leave to re-file.

5 (6) Direct Communications with District Judge or Magistrate Judge

6 No direct communication is to take place with the District Judge or Magistrate Judge with 7 regard to this case. All relevant information and papers are to be directed to the Clerk.

8 (7) The Clerk is directed to send copies of this Order and of the Court's pro se 9 instruction sheet to plaintiff. The Clerk is further directed send a copy of this Order and a 10 courtesy copy of plaintiff's complaint to Washington State Attorney General's Office, by first-11 class mail.
